

The Parliament Library open to public

The Parliament Library is now open for visit by the general visitors for a show round of the Parliament Library to them and for study and consultation to the various categories of users. For this, a facility of online booking has been made available on the Parliament Library website through the e-portal - "Parliament Library - Online Application portal for Entry" at the following web address:-

<http://parlibindiaentrypass.nic.in/>

There are two main categories of users, the General Public and the Research Scholars, Academicians and Media persons etc.

The General Visitors are given access in slot of one hour each in a day (with two slots at designated time in a day; one in forenoon and one in afternoon). They are required to upload their identification documents, after verification of which, they would be allowed an entry.

The other categories of users viz. the Research Scholars, officials recommended by universities, colleges, Ministries, Departments and Institutions; Academicians, Teachers, and Professors; and Media persons accredited to Lok Sabha/Rajya Sabha are to be provided access for a period of one month only, subject to renewal/continuation for a further period of two months. The applicants in this category need to upload documents such as Aadhaar card, Institutional I-card, Police Clearance Certificate and other relevant documents.

Besides online facility, the second category of users viz. the Research Scholars, Academicians and Media persons etc. can also download and submit a physical copy of the form made available for the same on the Parliament Library website.
